

ITEMS OF SOCIAL INTEREST

President and Mrs. Hadley and children left Thursday for Madison, where they have taken a house for the month of August.

Mrs. E. Hayes Trowbridge has been in town for a short time. She is now sojourning at the Red Lion Inn at Stockbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Bennett of Prospect street have joined the New Haven colony at Watch Hill and are stopping at the Plimpton House.

Gen. George H. Ford of Trumbull street is spending a few weeks at Sharon Springs, N. Y. Mrs. Ford is spending the summer in Luzerne, with her sister, Miss Leonard.

Mrs. Timothy H. Bishop of Church street, who has been spending the month of July at York Cliffs, Me., has returned to her home in this city.

Professor and Mrs. Edward G. Bourne of Mansfield street have gone to West Cornwall for the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. Edward R. Sargent of Humphrey street, who has been spending this week with Mrs. Lewis H. English at her cottage at Watch Hill, is a week-end visitor at the cottage of Mrs. Frederick J. Kingsbury, Jr., at the same resort.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Dickerman of Temple street left this week for Seal Harbor, Me. It has been their custom for several seasons to join the New Haven colony there, but usually they have gone up earlier in the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Dickerman will open their house here sometime in September.

Mrs. James S. Hemingway and children of Temple street are spending the month of August and part of September at the Crawford House in the White Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Justus S. Hotchkiss of Church street, who have been in the Adirondacks for several weeks, are now at the Hotchkiss camp at Paul Smith's.

Mrs. E. G. Stoddard of Temple street, who went to the White Mountains a few weeks ago, is registered at the Mount Washington. Mr. Stoddard is going up a little later in the season.

Miss Mabel T. Boardman of Washington, D. C., has recently returned from abroad, where she went to attend the Red Cross conference, and is now at the Boardman country house at Manchester-by-the-Sea, Mass. Miss Boardman has visited New Haven a number of times and has usually been entertained by Mrs. Winston J. Trowbridge.

Mrs. Lynde Harrison and Miss Katharine Harrison, who have been abroad for the past year, are at present in Carlsbad, and will sail for home about the middle of this month. They will probably remain here but a short time, however, as they are planning to spend the winter abroad.

Mrs. Frederick J. Kingsbury, Jr., and Miss Ruth Kingsbury of Humphrey street are summering at Watch Hill, R. I.

Rev. and Mrs. Anson Phelps Stokes, Jr., of Elm street are, as usual, spending the summer at their camp at Paul Smith's in the Adirondacks. They will not return to town until college opens in the fall. They have had as their guests for the past fortnight Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter of New York.

Mrs. Edward Bliss Reed of Edwards street, who is spending the summer at Watch Hill, was the hostess at a luncheon at the club house one day this week.

Miss Eunice Parish returned early this week from Watch Hill, where she has been a guest at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert DuPuy of Pittsburg, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Bakewell of Lawrence street are among the New Haveners summering in the Adirondacks. They will return to town during the early part of September.

Mr. F. Thornton Hunt of Trumbull street is planning to close his house and sail for Europe late this month. Mr. Hunt has been abroad for several seasons and expects to be away for about three months. He will be accompanied by Mr. David T. Roberts.

Miss Helen S. Burn and Miss Phyllis E. Burn of Trumbull street are guests at the Watch Hill house at Watch Hill, R. I.

Judge and Mrs. Morris W. Seymour, who are at their country home in Litchfield for the summer, are spending a couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Seymour in Vermont.

Mrs. Walter O. Whitcomb of Church street left Thursday for Watch Hill, R. I., where she will spend the month of August.

Dr. and Mrs. William C. Wurtemberg of Elm street have gone to their camp at Roach River in the Maine woods. They will not return to town until the first of September.

Gen. and Mrs. Phelps Montgomery of Whitney avenue, who are enjoying an automobile trip through the White Mountains, are now at Franconia Notch. They have been stopping at Wentworth Hall, and are planning to visit several other fashionable mountain resorts before returning home.

Mrs. George X. McLanahan of Washington, D. C., is summering at Watch Hill. Mrs. McLanahan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dening Duer of Whitney avenue.

Miss Susan V. Hotchkiss of Chapel street is a member of the summer colony at Watch Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Q. Trowbridge, who left a while ago for an extended automobile trip, will not return to town until early in September. They are at present stopping at the Waumbeck in New Hampshire.

Professor and Mrs. Horatio M. Reynolds of Trumbull street are spending a few weeks at Crawford House in the White Mountains.

Mrs. Philo S. Bennett and Miss Imogene Brown, who have been in the Berkshires for a few weeks, are now in the White Mountains, where they are stopping at the Maplewood Hotel.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles O. Scoville and Miss Helen Scoville, who have been in the White Mountains, are now in Matagammon, Me. They will return to town about the middle of the month.

THE BUNGALOW, SHORT BEACH.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce N. Welch of West Chapel street have returned from Norfolk, this state, where they spent the month of July.

Miss May Russell of Elm street left this week for Great Barrington, Mass., where she will be the guest of friends for a few weeks.

One of the most successful entertainments which has been given at the Litchfield Club house this season was the german for the married people, on Saturday evening. Many dainty favors were given the dancers during the cotillion, which was led by Mr. and Mrs. James P. Woodruff for the first half and Mr. Charles H. Woodruff, jr., with Mrs. F. W. Corse for the second half. There were about twenty-five couples present. The patronesses were Mrs. Taintor, Mrs. Morris W. Seymour, Mrs. Bullard and Mrs. George C. Woodruff.

Miss Harriet Monson of Temple street has gone to Hot Springs, Va., for the month of August.

The golf events at the Pine Orchard Country club are crowding in thick and fast and are receiving much attention from the cottagers. To-day there is to be a team match with Madison; the next two Saturdays will be played the preliminary and final rounds for the president's cup; on the twenty-fourth is the Benton cup match against bogey; and on the thirty-first is the cross country match for the Phillips' cup. Labor day the members of the club will play for the greens committee cup. The last event will be on the following Saturday, but it has not yet been announced.

Mr. Max Dessauer of York street is visiting in Wildwood, N. J. A little later he will join Professor and Mrs. Isidor Trosstwyk at Arkville in the Catskills.

Dr. and Mrs. Donald R. Hooker of Baltimore, Md., who are well known in this city, reached New York this week on the Vaderland, from an extended trip abroad.

Mr. H. E. Swezey, the well-known steamship ticket agent, and Mrs. Swezey will sail this afternoon for Europe on the new 18,000-ton steamer, President Lincoln, of the Hamburg-American line. Mr. Swezey is making his fifth tour abroad, and before returning, about the first of October, will visit Norway, Sweden, Russia and Germany.

Registered at the Eagle House at Jackson, in the White Mountains are Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Williams of Lawrence street.

Rev. Watson L. Phillips, D.D., pastor of the Church of the Redeemer, and Mrs. Phillips are in Litchfield visiting their son, Dr. Frank L. Phillips. Later they will go to East Pembroke, Mass., where it has been their custom to spend the summer for several seasons. During the absence of Dr. Phillips, Rev. Mr. Archibald will be in charge of the parish.

Rev. William P. Downes, curate in charge of All Saints chapel, and Mrs. Downes, are spending the month of August in Darien. Mr. Downes is to preach Sunday mornings during the month at St. John's church in Stamford. The services at All Saints chapel will be in charge of Rev. F. H. Bigelow.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Beede and young daughter, Faustina, of Temple street, left this week for a month's stay in Milford, Penn. Their son, Mr. Victor Beede, is connected with the Yale Summer School of Forestry in Milford.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward S. Gaylord of Humphrey street left Monday for the Adirondacks. They expect to be away for several weeks.

Mrs. Leonard Bostwick of Orange street left this week for Castleton, Vt., where she will spend the remainder of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. David S. Gamble of West Chapel street left this week for Atlantic City, where they will spend part of the month of August at the Marlboro-Blenheim.

Rev. Robert Bell of the St. Paul's parish, who sailed for Europe several weeks ago, is now in Paris for a short time.

Rev. L. B. Baldwin and family of West Chapel street are spending the summer in Woodbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodson and Miss Mae Hodson of Bristol street left their cottage at the west shore this week and are now in Bethlehem, N. H., for a month's stay. They are stopping at the Uplands.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Walker and the Misses Minna and Marguerite Walker of York street will spend the month of August at Shelter Island.

Dr. and Mrs. William S. Metcalf of College street are at their country home in Cornwall, Litchfield county, during the summer months.

Dr. and Mrs. William G. Alling and two children of Orange street are spending a few weeks in the Catskills. Before returning home they will go to Vermont for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bunnell of Willow street are spending a number of weeks in the Adirondacks.

Mrs. Nellie Carey Reynolds of Hartford is stopping with Mrs. William P. Tuttle at her cottage in Woodmont.

Mr. Frederick D. Grave and family have moved from George street to their new home on Lake Whitney.

Mrs. A. C. Bushnell of West Chapel street and Miss Maud Armstrong of Howe street are enjoying a fortnight's trip to the White Mountains. They will stop at the Mount Washington, the Profile and the Crawford House.

Rev. F. A. M. Brown, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, with Mrs. Brown and Miss Brown, is spending the summer at their new cottage at Pine Orchard.

Judge Richard H. Tyner and Attorney Frederick Russell sailed Wednesday for a month's trip abroad. They will visit Ireland and Scotland.

Rev. W. D. Tuckey of Milford is to supply the pulpit of the Grace M. E. church to-morrow in the absence of the pastor, Rev. W. W. Wilson, who is away on his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Walker and children of George street have returned from a month's stay at Bethlehem, N. H.

Mr. Edward McCarthy with Miss Mae McCarthy and Miss Elizabeth McCarthy of Davenport avenue sails to-day for a six weeks' trip abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. David H. Clark of Pearl street left this week for a month's stay at Lake Champlain, N.Y. They are to make the trip by auto.