

IN NEW HAVEN'S SOCIAL CIRCLES

Stopping at New Haven House.

Mrs. Wilbur F. Day and her sons, Mr. Wilbur Day and Mr. Osborn Day, who have rented their house on Prospect street to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick F. Brewster for the coming year, are stopping at the New Haven House for the present.

At "Gray Birches."

Dr. Thomas B. Osborne and family and Mr. Arthur D. Osborne of Trumbull street have gone to their summer home, "Gray Birches," at Holderness, N. H. They will be away until late in the fall.

Summering at Holderness.

Professor and Mrs. Augustus J. DuBois of Edwards street left this week for Holderness, N. H., where they will remain until the opening of college in the fall.

Sailed Tuesday for Europe.

Mrs. E. Hayes Trowbridge has closed her house on Temple street and was among the passengers on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie, which sailed from New York Tuesday for Europe. Mrs. Trowbridge was accompanied by her companion, Miss Sarah Alloway. She will be away during the summer, and will take a northern trip, visiting the North Cape, Norway and Russia.

Guests at Fenwick Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Stuart Hotchkiss of Hillhouse avenue were among the recent guests at Fenwick Hall in Fenwick.

Left Tuesday for Lenox.

Mr. and Mrs. John Edward Heaton of St. Ronan street left Tuesday for Lenox, where they will spend the summer. They have taken one of the cottages on the Aspinwall property.

Summering at the Maplewood.

Mrs. E. D. Dickerman of the Yorkwall has gone to Pittsfield, Mass., and will spend the summer at the Maplewood.

Treadways at Short Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Treadway of St. Ronan street have gone to their cottage at Short Beach for the summer. They had as their guests over the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. York, and Dr. and Mrs. William C. Wurtemberg. Mrs. Treadway's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hayden of Columbus, Ohio, are expected later in the summer.

Dr. Dwight the Chaplain.

At the annual meeting of the Society of Cincinnati of Connecticut, which was held in Hartford on Saturday, Dr. Timothy Dwight of this city was elected chaplain.

At the White Mountains.

Mrs. Timothy Dwight and Miss Helen

Are at Blue Hills.

Dr. and Mrs. Horatio W. Parker and family closed their house on Temple street a few days ago and have gone to Blue Hills, Maine, for the summer.

Mrs. Stephen Whitney Away.

Mrs. Stephen Whitney and her son, Mr. Stephen Whitney, have gone to Northeast Harbor, Maine, for the summer.

Are Summering in Camden.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Bigelow, with Miss Louise Bigelow and Mr. Pierre Bigelow, of Whitney avenue have gone to their cottage at Camden, Maine, for the summer.

Have Gone to Maine.

Among the New Haveners spending the summer at Seal Harbor, Maine, are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Bristol of Whitney avenue.

Left This Week for Litchfield.

Professor and Mrs. D. Cady Eaton of Prospect street have closed their house this week and have gone to their country home in Litchfield, and will be away until the opening of college in the fall. For several summers Professor and Mrs. Eaton have spent the vacation abroad. Professor and Mrs. Eaton will spend a part of the summer at Mr. Henry L. Hotchkiss' camp at Paul Smith's in the Adirondacks.

Dr. McCurdy Abroad.

Dr. George Grant McCurdy, curator of the anthropological collection in the Peabody museum of Yale, sailed Saturday, by the steamer Finland, to spend the summer in Europe in the interest of his department. He will land at Dover and will be met by an English friend, who will, as in his last visit, take him in his automobile on tours of scientific investigation in that part of England. Dr. McCurdy will attend a scientific meeting at Antwerp, going afterwards into France, and perhaps Spain, but the chief object of his journey is to attend the sixteenth international congress of anthropology at Vienna, September ninth to fourteenth, to which, at the request of the Smithsonian institution, the department of state has appointed him a delegate. In company with him is Dr. Charles Peabody, curator of anthropology of the Peabody museum of Harvard, who has received similar honor.

Guests at the Aspinwall.

Among the guests at the Aspinwall at Lenox, Mass., for the summer are Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Farrel and Mr. and Mrs. George C. Bryant of Ansonia.

Guests at Sharon Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Dunscomb, who closed their house on Prospect

RESIDENCE OF MR. C. S. JOHNSTON IN WHITNEY AVENUE.

Mrs. Bourne in Stockbridge.

Mrs. Edward G. Bourne of Mansfield street has closed her house and gone to Stockbridge, Mass., where she will spend the summer.

Mrs. Parmelee at Home.

Mrs. Henry S. Parmelee of Hillhouse avenue has returned home from a short stay at Eastern Point, Groton.

At Monument Beach.

Mrs. John M. Hall and the Misses Florence and Helen Hall, who are now making their home in Boston, are spending the summer months at Monument Beach, Mass.

Stopping at Paul Smith's.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Benedict of Bishop street, with Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Benedict and Mr. Harry Benedict, left a few days ago for Paul Smith's, in the Adirondacks, where they will spend the summer.

Professor Adams in Vermont.

Professor and Mrs. George B. Adams and Miss Adams of Edgehill road have gone to North Derby, Vermont. They will return to town for the opening of college in the fall.

Guests of the Carringtons.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carrington of Whitney avenue, who are occupying their cottage at Madison, have had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Burnside

At University of California.

Professor and Mrs. William Lyon Phelps, who closed their house on High street when college closed, and left for the west, are now in California. Professor Phelps is delivering a course of lectures at the University of California. At the conclusion of the lectures, Professor and Mrs. Phelps will leave for a trip to Alaska. They will return to New Haven for the opening of college in the fall.

At the Griswold.

Col. Thomas E. Addis of the New Haven House is spending several weeks at the Griswold in New London.

Guest at Chiswick Inn.

Mrs. J. M. Torbert of West Chapel street will spend the month of August at Chiswick Inn, at Littleton, New Hampshire.

At Lake Waramaug.

Mrs. Franklin W. Guion and Miss Katherine Guion of St. Ronan street are spending a couple of weeks at Lake Waramaug, New Preston. They are guests at the Wilson House.

At the Thimble Islands.

Professor Benjamin Jepson, Professor Harry B. Jepson and Miss Clara Jepson of Lawrence street are at their cottage at the Thimble Islands for the summer.

Beechers at Morris Cove.

Mr. L. Wheeler Beecher and family of Whalley avenue are occupying their cottage at Morris Cove for the summer.

Will Go to New Hampshire.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Thompson of Orange street will leave in a few days for Little Boar's Head, New Hampshire, where they will remain until the first of September.

Will Leave for Brattleboro.

Miss Eva Louise Bradley of North Haven, who is so well known in musical circles both there and in this city, will leave Wednesday for Brattleboro, Vermont. She will be a guest at Linden Lodge, as she has been for several seasons, and will not return to New Haven until October. While away, Miss Bradley will probably give several musicals at the hotel.

Mossmans in Madison.

Mrs. W. D. Mossman and children are as usual at their summer home at Madison, occupying, as for many years past, the old Field homestead in "The Woods" district. Mr. Mossman is at present occupied with fresh air excursions for the poorer people and other mission work in the city, and will not take a vacation until later, probably spending a part of the month of August at Madison.

In Kent for July.

Mrs. Anna M. Mealia and the Misses Gertrude and Anna Mealia of Dixwell avenue are spending the month of July in Kent.

City Mission Outing.

In addition to the large excursion of last week by the City Missionary association, this week's fresh air excursion on Wednesday was for the members of the Mothers' club and their little children. With some of the members of the Women's Executive committee and other friends, nearly two hundred enjoyed the entire day at Mansfield's grove, and, after lunch and the serving of cake and ice cream, the usual meeting was held in the grove, led by Mrs. L. S. Graves, the lady missionary. An interesting and helpful address was made by Rev. E. C. Tullar, pastor of the East Pearl Street M. E. church, and there were recitations of poetry and scripture verses by some of the women and children, with short talks by Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Shepard, Mrs. Sturges and others. The youngest child at the grove was five months of age and the oldest person 94 years old. All are grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett for the free use of their many conveniences at the shore.

Moonlight Canoe Trip.

The second moonlight canoe trip was enjoyed last evening by quite a number of the Quinnipiac Canoe club members. About twenty canoes left the club house at about eight o'clock and were paddled up the river to Red Banks. Music was furnished during the evening by the Schubert Male quartet, all of whom are members of the club. Lunch was served before the party returned to the club house.

Picnic at South End.

Mrs. Henry Fresenius of Howard avenue entertained a number of friends, particularly the members of the Momauguin Whist club, at a picnic at South End on Monday. The ladies left the city in autos and carriages early in the day and did not return until evening. Boating and bathing were enjoyed during the early part of the day, and whist was played in the afternoon. Mrs. C. O. Reichert and Mrs. William Young were the prize winners, while Mrs. Edward Bean was awarded the consolation prize. The party was complimentary to Mrs. Charles Bodenstein and Mrs. George Doeffler of Hartford, who were the guests of Mrs. Fresenius.

Guest of Miss Hulse.

Miss Evelyn D. Hulse is entertaining her friend, Miss Ency H. Case of Peconic, New York, at her home on Howard avenue. Miss Case attended Dean Academy, Franklin, Mass., when Miss Hulse was a pupil last year.

of chairman of Connecticut, who was held in Hartford on Saturday, Dr. Timothy Dwight of this city was elected chaplain.

At the White Mountains.

Mrs. Timothy Dwight and Miss Helen Dwight of Hillhouse avenue have gone to the White Mountains for the summer and are occupying one of the cottages connected with the Profile house. The Dwights have usually spent the summer at their country home in Litchfield, but their plans have been somewhat changed this season.

At Camp in Adirondacks.

Dr. and Mrs. Raynham Townshend (Miss Juliet Adee), who have been in the Adirondacks since their marriage, are now at Mr. Henry L. Hotchkiss' camp on the St. Regis. They will not return to town for several weeks.

At Their Summer Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Trowbridge and family of Church street have gone to their country home in Lyme for the summer.

Professor Perrin Away.

Professor and Mrs. Bernadotte Perrin of Whitney avenue have gone to their camp at Brant Lake, Horicon, N. Y. They will be away until the opening of college in the fall.

Are At Seal Harbor.

Professor and Mrs. Edward Salisbury Dana and Miss May Dana of Hillhouse avenue left a few days ago for Seal Harbor, Maine, where they will spend the summer, as has been their custom for several seasons.

Summering at Watch Hill.

Among the recent arrivals at Watch Hill are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. English of Whitney avenue, who have one of the handsomest cottages at that resort.

Sailed on the Baltic.

Mrs. William K. Townsend and her son, Mr. George H. Townsend, 2d, of Grove street, sailed from New York Thursday on the Baltic of the White Star line for a summer abroad. The Townsends have usually spent the summer at their camp in the Adirondacks, but, as has already been announced, Mrs. Townsend has leased it for the summer. She spent a few weeks there early in the season, returning for commencement.

The Wallaces Abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wallace, jr., and their son, Mr. Thomas Wallace, 3d, of Prospect street, sailed Tuesday from New York on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie for a summer abroad. They will spend some time on the French coast and are planning to take a number of automobile trips. They will return home in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Bryant of Ansonia.

Guests at Sharon Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Dunscomb, who closed their house on Prospect street a few weeks ago, and have been stopping at the Yorkwall, have gone to Sharon, this state. They are guests at the Sharon Inn for a few weeks.

The Trowbridges in Lyme.

Mr. and Mrs. Elford P. Trowbridge of Church street are members of the summer colony at Lyme. They will remain at their country home until fall. Mrs. Trowbridge resided in Lyme before her marriage, and as Miss Chadwick was a popular member of the summer colony there. She will do considerable entertaining this season.

Entertaining Miss Howard.

Miss Howard, the daughter of Captain W. L. Howard of Washington, D. C., is the guest of her cousins, the Misses Mabel and Margaret Billings of Whitney avenue. Mrs. Howard is spending a few days with friends on Temple street.

Summer in White Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor M. Tyler of Prospect street, who recently sold their summer home at Indian Neck to Gen. Phelps Montgomery, are planning to spend several weeks of the summer in the White Mountains.

Robertsons at Ocean House.

Mrs. A. Heaton Robertson, with Miss Mabel Joy Robertson and Mr. Heaton Ridgeway Robertson, left yesterday for Watch Hill, R. I. They will be guests at the Ocean House for a month and will then go to the mountains for a few weeks.

Miss Daggett Away.

Miss Susan E. Daggett has closed her house on Grove street and will spend the hot weeks at Colebrook, this state.

Dr. Gaylord at Westbrook.

Dr. and Mrs. Raymond M. Gaylord of Everett street will spend the summer at Westbrook, this state.

In the White Mountains.

Mr. Daniel H. Veader and the Misses Veader of Highland street are spending several weeks in the White Mountains, and are stopping at Lisbon, New Hampshire.

Guests at Three Elms House.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Prentice, who have closed their house on Trumbull street, are guests at the Three Elms house in Stony Creek, while their cottage at the Thimble Islands is being renovated.

Guests of the Carringtons.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carrington of Whitney avenue, who are occupying their cottage at Madison, have had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Burnside Winslow of Utica, New York.

Are at Pine Orchard.

Mrs. Caleb B. Bowers and Miss Fannie Bowers of Crown street have closed their house and gone to Pine Orchard for the summer.

Stopping in New London.

Attorney and Mrs. John F. Alling of Mansfield street, who have been guests at the Griswold House in New London for a few weeks, will probably return home the coming week.

Week-End in Branford.

Professor and Mrs. George F. Eaton of Schem street were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Hammer of Branford.

Sojourning in Wallingford.

Dr. and Mrs. Presley Carr Lane of Orange street are spending a few weeks at Cook's Hill, Wallingford.

On a Hunting Trip.

Mr. Paul N. Dann of St. Ronan street has gone to Colorado Springs for a few weeks' hunting trip.

Buys Dwight Street Home.

Since selling their house on West Chapel street, Governor and Mrs. Rollin S. Woodruff have been living at their summer home in Guilford. They have now purchased the Foy residence on Dwight street, near Chapel, and will take possession of it when they return to town in the fall. Governor and Mrs. Woodruff have a great many friends in that part of the city who will be glad to know that they are to return.

In Southern Italy.

Mr. John I. H. Downes, president of the Paint and Clay club, and Mr. George Langzettel of the Yale Art school, who sailed for Italy early in June, are now in southern Italy and are doing considerable painting. They will return home about the middle of September, and expect to bring a number of canvasses.

Moved to Church Street.

Dr. Arthur N. Alling and family of York street have moved into their new home on Church street, the house formerly occupied by the late Dr. William Hotchkiss.

At Lake Minnewaska.

Mrs. Henry Champion of Crown street left this week for Lake Minnewaska, New York, where she will spend a number of weeks. It has been Mrs. Champion's custom to pass the summer at this resort for several seasons.

At the Thimble Islands.

Professor Benjamin Jepson, Professor Harry B. Jepson and Miss Clara Jepson of Lawrence street are at their cottage at the Thimble Islands for the summer.

In the White Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. French and family of Bishop street have gone to Thorn Mountain Park in the White Mountains for the summer.

Have Gone to Middleburgh.

Rev. and Mrs. Adam Martin and Mr. Sanford B. Martin of West Chapel street, left a few days ago for Middleburgh, N. Y., where they will spend the summer, as has been their custom for several seasons.

Stopping at Williamstown.

Mrs. Henry Trowbridge of College street, who has been spending a short time at the Maplewood at Pittsfield, Mass., has gone to Williamstown. She will be a guest at the Graylock for the remainder of the summer.

Are Now in Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan W. Hendryk of Audubon street, who are traveling abroad, are at present in Paris.

Are at Hotchkiss Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Elihu A. Beckley have closed their Whitney avenue house and are at their cottage at Hotchkiss Grove for the summer.

Steinerts in Massachusetts.

Mr. Rudolph Steinert and family of Orange street have gone to Clifton, Massachusetts, for the summer. They will not open their cottage at Morris Cove this season.

Summering in Branford.

Dr. D. W. Johnston and family of Church street are spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Isbell of Montowese street, Branford.

Sailed for Liverpool.

Mr. Stewart Lea Mims, instructor in history at the university, and Mr. Frank Wesley Pitman of George street sailed from Montreal on Saturday for Liverpool. Mr. Mims will go directly to Paris, where he will study for several months, while Mr. Pitman will do considerable research work at the British museum, public record office and libraries of London.

Have Rented Cottage.

Contrary to their usual custom, Dr. and Mrs. William A. Granville and family of Howe street will not go to their cottage at Bradley Point for the summer. They will remain in town and take a number of short trips. The cottage, Red Wing, has been rented for the season.

present occupied with fresh air excursions for the poorer people and other mission work in the city, and will not take a vacation until later, probably spending a part of the month of August at Madison.

Leave Tuesday for Martha's Vineyard.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Parsons of Beers street will leave Tuesday for Martha's Vineyard, where they will remain until some time in September. There is always quite a large colony of musicians at this resort and it has been the custom of Mr. and Mrs. Parsons to spend their vacations there for several seasons.

Entertain King's Daughters.

About thirty members of the Whatsoever circle, King's Daughters, of the Plymouth church were entertained Wednesday afternoon at an outing at the home of Mrs. George R. Chamberlain, one of the members. Mrs. Chamberlain opened her cottage at Morris Cove for the affair, and the party arrived early in the afternoon, remaining until evening. Supper was served on the veranda, and a most delightful time was spent. The Circle will have another outing at Mansfield's Grove on August twelfth.

Will Summer at Holderness.

Mrs. E. L. Ives of Trumbull street will spend the summer at Holderness, New Hampshire.

Summering at Woodbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Tuttle of High street are spending the summer in Woodbridge.

'06S. Class Boy.

A son has recently been born to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Andrews of Humphrey street, which has the honor of being the class boy of the class of 1906 of the Sheffield Scientific school. Mrs. Andrews will be remembered as Miss Olive Lawrence.

Christ Church Picnic.

The annual picnic of Sunday schools of Christ church and St. Andrew's chapel will be held at Double Beach on Wednesday, July fifteenth. The special cars will leave St. Andrew's chapel at nine o'clock and will leave Christ church at quarter-past nine.

Are at Grove Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. William I. Lewis and family of Beers street have taken a cottage at Grove Beach for the remainder of the summer.

Entertained Whist Club.

Mrs. Charles Nicklas entertained a number of friends, particularly the members of the Momauguin Whist club, at her home on Sherman avenue Thursday afternoon. It was an informal meeting of the club and refreshments were served on the verandah.

her friend, Miss Ency H. Case of Peconic, New York, at her home on Howard avenue. Miss Case attended Dean Academy, Franklin, Mass., when Miss Hulse was a pupil last year.

Sojourning in Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy R. Greist and Miss Madeline Greist of Willard street, Westville, and Miss Margaret Harmon of Fountain street, are spending a couple of weeks in the Maine woods.

B. T. — House Party.

Several members of the B. T. — society of the New Haven High school are enjoying a house party at Woodmont for a few days. In the party are Miss Laura Austin, Miss Bessie Gessner, Miss Jessamine White, Miss Laura Osborn, Miss Elinor Todd, Miss Mabel Ives, Miss Dorothy Blakeslee and Miss Marion Alling.

At Narragansett Pier.

Mrs. F. G. Wilmot and Miss Norma Wilmot of Elm street have gone to Narragansett Pier for a few weeks' stay.

Home from New York State.

Mrs. William T. Barnum of Sherman avenue, with her two sons, Roland and Milton Barnum, have returned home from an extended trip, visiting in Wellsboro, Penn., and at Mrs. Barnum's former home in Geneva and Rochester, N. Y.

Home from Western Trip.

Miss Florence Russell, assistant librarian at the Free Public library, returned this week from a western trip of several weeks, visiting St. Paul, Chicago and several important western cities.

Vacation in New Hampshire.

Rev. William W. Leete, D.D., pastor of the Dwight Place church, and Mrs. Leete and the children, will close their West Chapel street house the coming week and leave for New Hampshire. They will spend the summer at their cottage at Hasting's Landing, Sunapee Lake. Dr. Leete and family have spent the summer at Hasting's Landing for several years, but it was not until last season that they built their own cottage.

At Marlborough Cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Clark of Derby avenue are spending the summer at their cottage, The Marlborough, at Woodmont.

At Woodbridge Home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Blakeslee and Miss Phoebe Blakeslee of George street are at their summer home in Woodbridge.