

1920 Branford Census
T625, Roll 188, pages 188-255

The enumerator for the 1920 census went from neighborhood to neighborhood which can be generally be found on the following pages:

Branford 204-210
Branford Center 222-223, 230-255
Branford Hills 223-227
Branford Point 210B-216, 229
Brushy Plain 228 & 229
Damascus 193-194
Indian Neck 188-191
Mill Plain 204 & 205
Paved Street District 202-203
Pine Orchard 191-193
Short Beach 217-222, 226
Stony Creek 195-201

The enumerators for the 1920 census were very thorough and the penmanship excellent unlike the 1910 and 1930 census. Neighborhoods are separated and streets labeled. Details include age, relationships, occupations, birthplaces of the individual and their parents, date of immigration and immigration status. Sometimes the town in the country of origin is listed for foreign births. Some of the enumerators used nicknames for people, especially for emigrants.

Patterns can be established by using the census information. Italian men often came to this country for a few years and went back to Italy to get their families or to find a wife back home. Often Italian men married considerably younger women. Scandinavians more often brought their families with them and the men married slightly older women.
