1800 Branford Census Branford- M32, Roll 2, Pages 353-376

Enumeration day for the second federal census was August 4, 1800. The census taker had nine months to complete the survey of inhabitants however the household count was based on those living on August 4th. The 1800 census has a further break down of age groups for both males and females in four categories. Unlike the 1790 census, columns are totaled only at the end, not on each individual page. Other free people are listed separately and a total for numbers of slaves is given. There was a total of 20 slaves, five in Branford and 15 in North Branford/Northford.

The penmanship for Branford in the 1800 census is very clear and easily interpreted except for one or two names at the end of a page. The numbers in the age columns are clearly marked. The enumerator used the common name abbreviations of the time, for example Nath with the two "Ls" as superscript for Nathaniel. Jno. appears to be used for both John and Jonathan. The spelling of both surnames and first names are more standardized than in the 1790 census.

Attached is this writer's interpretation of the people in the census and their genealogy. It has been noted when relatives lived next to his each other in the census or nearby. This analysis is helpful in identifying individuals in the census, especially those with a common surname or same first name. Identification is also based on neighborhood and the ages of the people in the household. I have added line numbers to more easily locate an individual, these are not on the original pages.

The route the enumerator took is easy to follow in the 1800 census though it probably took several days to complete. The route is as follows:

Page 353- The census taker started in Stony Creek, down Stony Creek Road to Damascus (pages 354 and 355).

Page 355 and 356- The enumerator headed down Montowese Street, then on to Main Street and the library/Bradley Street area (pages 357 and 358).

Page 358- Includes the people living in Plantsville and Branford Hills and then to Double Beach and Branford Point (pages 358 and 259).

Page 360- More people are recorded uptown and then the families of East Main Street, Mill Plain, Flat Rock and North Branford Road. (pages 361-363).

Pages 363-370 The census taker records the people living in North Branford.

Pages 371-175 The census taker is in Northford.

Page 376- The enumerator finishes the census with the Towners and Goodriches on East Main Street toward Guilford.
