PINE ORCHARD WATER CARNIVAL

Large Number of Entries for First Event of the Year.

The first of the 1906 water carnivals at Pine Orchard will be held this afternoon. The knockabout class will be started at 2.30 p. m., to be followed by the catboats and dories five minutes later. For the canoe race six boats are entered and for the canoe tilting contest five. In the boys' rowing race there are five entries. The number of entries ensures a successful regatta, and prizes will be awarded in each class. Entries have been confined to summer residents of Pine Orchard, Indian Neck and Hotchkiss Grove. The judges, timekeepers and starters are William B. Tyler, Edward A. Bowers, Joseph D. Sargent, Henry C. Rowe and Commander E. V. Reynolds. The judges' boat will be the new yacht of Henry C. Rowe and will be anchored off the long pier at the finish.

The course is triangular and will be sailed three times by the sailing and motor classes, the finish in all cases being at the beach. The starting point is at the easterly end of the beach, westerly to the end of the pier, southerly to the stakeboat off Hotchkiss Grove, thence northerly to the start. This makes about four miles.

The entries are as follows:
Knockabout class—Victor Tyler, R. P. Tyler, Pitkin, Fayles, Hume.
Catboats and dories—Carlisle, Hume, Gregory, Fayles, Pitkin, Thayer, Manson.
Launches—Daggett, Sturgis, Chatfield, Killam, Everts, Hudson, Rice Bushnell, Pitkin, McNeil, Meeks, Osborn.
Canoes—Tyler, Gallaudet, Carlisle, Gregory, Pitkin, Chatfield.
Tilting contest—Thompson, Watrous, Tyler, Pitkin, Carlisle.
Boys' rowing race—Day and Gregory, Everts and Dibble, McKeever and Shepardson, Chatfield and L. Dibble.

Secret of Happiness.

Whoso goeth away back and sitteth down keepeth out of the the dust that the meddler kicketh up, heareth not the clamor of the throng, liveth long; and is happy because of that which he knoweth not.—Jeremiah of Joppa.
