OUTING AT MANSFIELDS

Yale Business College Graduates to Meet August 1st.

The annual outing of the Yale Business College League and Alumni association will be held at Mansfield's Grove on Saturday afternoon, August 1st.

Cars leave the green for Mansfield's Grove at 2.00 o'clock. A literary program, election of officers and different out-door contests are to be arranged for by the committee, which consists of James A. Shea, Abbie A. Coburn, Charlotte Norton and Helen Dawless. At a business meeting held on Tuesday evening, Mr. O'Brien's resignation as president was accepted, and a motion was passed to strike from the list of membership all those who did not graduate or continue in the school during the past year. It was also voted not to accept into the membership rolls in the future any except bona fide graduates, making the association purely an alumni affair. All old graduates, present students and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Any particulars in reference to the outing will be furnished by members of the committee, or by Mr. N. B. Stone, the president of the college.

A Smooth Face

Is rather to be chosen than many whiskers.

That's especially true during the extreme heat of summer, when a clean, smooth shave is as cooling to the outer man as a long, cool drink is to the inner man.

But the pleasure of the daily shave is spoiled if the razor is bad, and an irritated skin is a constant reminder of it. Don't scrape along with a poor razor—buy a good one.

We have the best of many kinds and are glad to tell you about them.
