WEDDINGS OF THE WEEK

McKenzie—Leffingwell.

Of much interest to local society people was the marriage of Miss Aimee Gilbert Leffingwell of New York to Mr. Kenneth McKenzie of this city, Gertrude Crosby and Miss Lena Crosby. Mr. and Mrs. Terrell left late in the evening for a short trip, Mrs. Terrell wearing a tailored suit of brown Rajah silk with hat to match. After October first they will be at home to their friends at 603 Savin avenue.

McLaughlin—Edwards.

The engagement is announced of Miss Irene May Edwards, and Mr. William McLaughlin, both of West Haven. Mr. McLaughlin is chief train despatcher of the western division of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad. As yet no date for the wedding has been announced.

AT THE SUMMER HOTELS

Woodmont.

The week at Woodmont has been a little dull, and with the exception of the informal dances at the hotels, there has not been much entertaining. As usual, the golf links have attracted their share of the cottagers and there have been several events played off this week.

The largest dance is the Saturday evening hop at the Pembroke. The large dining room is never uncomfortably crowded and the floor is always in excellent condition. Mr. Phillips, the proprietor of the hotel, has attended to every detail for the pleasure of his guests. The house has been filled through July and there were a number of changes among the guests the first of the month. Aside from the regular house guests, there are a number of transients at the hotel each day, including many auto parties.

There has been some talk among the young people at the resort about arranging an amateur theatrical performance, but as yet nothing definite has been done. There is considerable talent at the resort, and a good entertainment could be arranged.

To-morrow evening there will be an evening of song at the Pembroke hotel. Several musicians, who are summering at the resort, will contribute to the program, and will be assisted by Miss Peers of Smith college.

Last evening a progressive whist party was given at the hotel by the occupants of Arcadia cottage. Prizes were offered and it was largely attended. A very pleasant evening was spent by the large number of players.

On Thursday of the coming week the members of the Ladies' Guild of the Woodmont chapel will hold a sale at the Pembroke hotel. Home-made cake, candy, ice cream and fancy articles will be offered for sale. The fair is given for the benefit of the chapel.

Cosey Beach.

The big event of the week at Cosey Beach will be the St. Mary's picnic at the Momauguin on Tuesday. It will be held on Tuesday, August 12, at nine o'clock. The proceeds are to be added to the chapel fund.

There is considerable talk of a minstrel show later in the season. Following the success of the one given last year, if it is undertaken, it certainly should be successful. Much of last year's talent could again be procured.

Indian Neck.

The Montowese house, always the center of gayety at the summer colony at Indian Neck, has never had as many guests as this season. Quite a number have been at the house since early in the summer, but many came for the month of August. Every room is taken and the prospects are that the season will be a good one well into September. The tennis court has, as usual, been very popular and the tournament has recently been finished. Informal playing for the most part has occupied the minds of the players. The golf enthusiasts have been going over to the Pine Orchard links and have been enjoying the privilege accorded them of the use of the Country club grounds.

The entertaining at the Neck this week has not been as extensive as usual, the cottagers seeming to be resting after the hot weather. There have, of course, been any number of sailing parties and card parties, but all have been impromptu.

At the Montowese house the regular orchestra plays every evening for dancing and the young people are usually to be found in the assembly room or in the bowling alley. The billiard room also claims its share of the guests.

Pine Orchard.

This week has been rather quiet at the Country club, as the members have been resting from their follies of last week. But in spite of the social lull, the golf links have been very busy. In the finals for the Bushnell cup, fourth day's play, Roger A. Benton of New Haven easily won the cup. The final score was as follows: R. A. Benton, 12½; G. H. Baker, 8; W. G. Bushnell, 7½; Swayne Phillips, 7; R. E. Platt, 6; M. J. Warner, 5; Miss E. F. Tyler, 4; J. D. Sargent, 3½; John Moran, 3; F. H. Baker, 3; and C. G. Phillips, ½.

In the play-off for the Todd cup, G. H. Baker won. In the qualifying round for the president's cup, the following were the scores turned in:

	1st g.	2nd g.	Gr.	H.	Net
M. J. Warner	44	42	86	8	78

In the contest for the president's cup the eruption of Mount Pelee, six years ago. Every house and building in the town was destroyed, and every person killed, with the exception of one man, who was in prison. He was so badly burned, however, that he died very soon after. The accompanying illustrations give an excellent idea of the town before and after the eruption. The cone, which can be seen from the crater of the volcano, was formed in a few weeks and rose to 1,000 feet above the mouth of the crater. The lava cooled as it came up and one could almost see it grow. It blew off at the time of the eruption and is now about 200 feet above the crater. Some of the plantations at St. Pierre were covered 10 feet deep with lava, and nothing more desolate can be conceived than the cemetery. Great holes were torn in the ground, exposing many coffins to view, and every tombstone was thrown down. Nothing has been done toward rebuilding the town, as none of the inhabitants are left, and the others on the island are too poor.

While camping on Mount Pelee, Dr. and Mrs. Hovey entertained in their camp the American consul, Mr. Chester Martin of Detroit, Mich., with Mrs. Martin and their daughter, Mrs. Jones. The consulate is at Fort de France, and Dr. and Mrs. Hovey were also entertained there. The hospitality on the island is really remarkable. While there, Dr. and Mrs. Hovey, Mr. and Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Jones, and nine of the plantation owners were entertained over Sunday at a plantation owned by two bachelor brothers from France. The party arrived on horseback, each one accompanied by a servant on foot, and nearly every one had a dog. The size of the party can thus be imagined, but apparently no preparations were made for their coming. How the servants and dogs were fed no one seemed to know, but they cared for themselves in the servants' quarters. On this plantation alone there were 500 adult negro servants, and one of the owners said he had no more idea how many babies there were than he had how many mice there were.

On account of the heat, meat must be eaten within twelve hours of the time that it is killed. With ice at two cents a pound, very little is used. A trip to the market is made before every meal.

An interesting thing is the fact that wool cannot be raised on the island. A number of attempts have been made, but the heat is so intense that the sheep do not need the protection of the fleece. After a short time, they shed the wool and a long hair takes its place. They are the most peculiar looking animals one could imagine.

There are both pleasant and unpleasant features of the island life, and Mrs. Hovey enjoyed her experience greatly, the most novel one, of course, being the camping on Mount Pelee.

CHRIST CHURCH'S NEW CHAPEL

St. Martin's in the Field Nearly Ready in West Haven.

The first service at St. Martin's in the Field, the new chapel at Savin Rock, will be held to-morrow afternoon at four o'clock. The chapel, which is situated at the corner of Washington avenue and Park street, is being erected by Christ church, West Haven. It is not as yet completed, but is sufficiently so to make it possible to hold a service there. It was built partly from the timbers of the old Christ church and the work has only been done when the funds have been available.

GETTING THE BLUES

Now is the time for blue fishing. They are running well and just looking for someone to give them a lift. It's time to get out your tackle and tackle them. And if your kit is not complete just try us for a rod or hooks or whatever you need.

Fishermen who know tell us we have the right goods—but that our prices are a little lower than at most places.

The Young People's Missionary society of the First English Lutheran church held a lawn party at the home of Miss Agnes Johnson on Gilbert avenue, Thursday evening. Music was furnished by the Sunday school orchestra and several readings were given by Miss Annie Swenson, instructor of English and elocution in Bethany College, Lindsborg, Kansas. Refreshments were served and the sewing which has been done by the society for the missions in India was on exhibition. The proceeds of the party are to be used toward the support of a girl, whom the society is caring for, and is now in the mission school at Guntur, India. A large number of the members of the church and congregation were present and a most delightful evening was spent.

Business College Outing.

The Yale Business College League and Alumni association held its annual outing at Mansfield's Grove, Saturday afternoon, August first. The party gathered at the New Haven green and then left by trolley for the steamboat landing, where they boarded a launch and proceeded around the New Haven harbor to Mansfield's Grove. Upon arriving at the Grove a business meeting was called to order and election of officers followed. The following are the officers elected: Miss Elizabeth Williams, president; Mr. James Shea, vice-president; Miss Charlotte Norton, secretary, and Paul Williams, treasurer. A committee of five was arranged to take charge of the next meeting, to be held in September. After indulging in the amusements of the Grove, they again boarded the launch and returned to New Haven, spending several hours on the water. Lunch was provided by the ladies, and everyone reported a most enjoyable time. Among those present were the following: Miss Elizabeth Williams, Edna Young, Charlotte Norton, Paul Williams, Josephine Clavez, Bessie Sheehan, Fred Bennett, Constance Smith, E. Raymond Erwin, Miss Ford, Walter Baldwin, Marguerite Doyle and N. B. Stone.

McKenzie—Leffingwell.

Of much interest to local society people was the marriage of Miss Aimee Gilbert Leffingwell of New York to Mr. Kenneth McKenzie of this city, which took place last Thursday at the home of Mr. Lloyd Aspinwall at Summit, N. J. The wedding was very quiet and only a few relatives and intimate friends were present at the ceremony, which was performed by the bride's brother, Rev. Alsop Leffingwell of Toledo, Ohio. The bride was given in marriage by her other brother, Mr. Douglas Leffingwell. The best man was Mr. Samuel Francis Betchelder of Cambridge. Mr. McKenzie is professor of Italian at Yale, and has been a member of the university faculty for eight years. Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie will come to New Haven shortly before college opens in the fall and will make their home on Mansfield street. Professor and Mrs. McKenzie are now guests at the Litchfield Inn at Litchfield, for a short time.

Perry—Hotchkiss.

The marriage of Miss Mabel Irene Hotchkiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gridley Hotchkiss of Edgewood avenue, and Mr. Harry Lynn Perry of this city, was solemnized very quietly on Monday noon at Christ church parish house. Only the relatives and a few intimate friends were present at the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Frederick Merwin Burgess, curate of the church. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a tailored gown of Copenhagen blue and a large hat trimmed with white aigrettes. Mr. and Mrs. Perry left immediately after the ceremony for a trip through New York state. They are to reside on Whalley avenue.

Terrell—Wilcox.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilcox in Savin avenue, West Haven, on Wednesday evening occurred the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ora Lee Wilcox, and Mr. Frank Starr Terrell of Westville. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. F. L. Davis, pastor of the Westville Congregational church, was witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. Green and white was the color scheme of the decorations and the rooms were lavishly adorned with garden flowers. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white net and lace over white taffeta. Both bride and groom were unattended. A large reception, from seven to nine, followed the ceremony, and was largely attended. Assisting in the dining-room were Miss Louise Pardee, Miss Ruth Terrell, Miss Nan Terrell, Miss Lillian Russell, Miss Helen Smith, Miss Eleanor Whitten, Miss Florence Smith, Miss

Cosey Beach.

The big event of the week at Cosey Beach will be the St. Mary's picnic at the Momauguin on Tuesday. It will be the largest picnic in the history of the church and one of the largest gatherings ever held at Cosey Beach. The free use of the grounds has been given the committee and the members have been working hard to make the picnic a success. There are to be a number of athletic events, in which the men, women and children will participate. It has been said that there would be ten thousand attend the picnic. This seems a large number, but Father Farmer of St. Mary's church does not think it is too large if the weather is good. Entertainments of all sorts, including dancing and a vaudeville performance, are being arranged. With a pleasant day, the picnic cannot help but be a success.

Morris Cove.

The event at the New Haven Yacht club to-day is the start of the annual long distance race. Five yachts will start: Thelga, Grilse, Bretonia, Katona and Petrel. They go to Larchmont and return, covering a course of one hundred miles. They ought to get back some time tomorrow afternoon.

The principal events of the week will be the hops at the Shoreham on Wednesday and Saturday evenings.

There will be the regular service at the chapel tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock, conducted by Rev. Franklin Knight of Forbes chapel.

Short Beach.

The members of the younger set at Short Beach are quite disappointed because Mrs. Ella Wheeler Wilcox has decided not to give a masquerade ball this season, as she has done for several years. It is very probable, however, that she will give some sort of an entertainment before the close of the season, as they are always so delightful and are looked forward to by the cottagers. Of course, Bungalow Lane is the center of activity at this beach, as it always has been since Mrs. Wilcox has been there. She always has a number of guests and does a great deal of informal entertaining. She has promised the young people that they can have another hop at the Barracks, and arrangements will soon be made for it. Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox are to give a dinner to-night for a number of friends. Mr. Wilcox entertained a number of Quinipiack club members at a bridge party on Friday afternoon.

The Chapel Workers are planning a fair to be held on the veranda and lawn of Cedar Toft, opposite Bungalow Lane, on Saturday, August twenty ception of the facing in the skirt. The dressmaker took her measure and returned the second day to try on the dress. The fourth day she returned with it completed and charged sixty cents for her work. The servant in the house insisted that it was altogether too much. She said that as Mrs. Hovey was a foreigner she had taken advantage of it and would probably not have charged a native more than twenty cents. The dresses are practically all made from the same pattern. The skirt and waist are cut together, the skirt very full and fastened with a belt. The skirt is long—every one there wears a train—and is always worn tucked into the belt, thus showing several inches of the petticoat. The natives pride themselves on their fancy petticoats. The sleeves are cut elbow length and the necks a little low.

Dr. and Mrs. Hovey visited the ruins of St. Pierre, the city which was entirely destroyed at the time of Refrigerator Baskets.

The refrigerator basket is a handy and useful article for picnics or automobile trips. The basket is rush, bound with wood, and the inside is lined with tin. One end is partitioned off to hold the ice, the rest of the inside being large enough to hold various articles of food that ought to be kept cool. The cover, which is also lined with tin, fits firmly down and is secured with a leather strap, making the basket both air and water proof. These baskets may be had in various sizes.
